Weekly Newsletter: WC 11th March

Thank you for all your kind donations for Comic Relief today. It was great to see so many ways the children did 'something funny for money!'

I have loved seeing so many children this week celebrating achieving 50 dojos, receiving their prizes and wearing their own clothes. The children are working so hard to earn those dojos and it is a pleasure to reward them.

Our Epworth Trust Rockstars battle has commenced today and will last for one week. Please encourage your children to spend some time each day practicing their multiplication tables, every effort helps them to win the battle!

Worship

This week in worship we have delved deeper into our Christian Value of generosity through both our whole school and Epworth Together Worship. In worship we have explored the charity Comic Relief and all its charity work it does to support others around the world. We thought about how we can help others including raising money today for the charity.

This week for Epworth Worship Together we learnt more about the charity we support – Edukid. We learnt how to be compassionate and show generosity to the children we sponsor, their friends and family.
