RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS

Exploring further

How many random acts of kindness can you come up with as a class?

Prayer of the week

Dear God,

Thank you for giving us the power to do good in the world. Help us to use our words and actions to spread kindness, not harm.

Give us the courage to speak up for others and the strength to stand against bullying.

May our school be a place where everyone feels valued and included.

This week's worship song

This week's activity

- Create a unity chain- Children write anti-bullying messages on coloured paper strips and link them together to form a chain, which can be displayed around the school.
- Make a 'kindness' display- Use handprints with kind messages or positive footprints to decorate the school and show unity against bullying.
- Design anti-bullying wristbands- Students can make their own wristbands as a reminder to stand up to bullying.

As you find each word in the word search below, think about how you could use words and actions to help others feel good, spread kindness and help stop bullying in its tracks.
