Weekly Newsletter: WC 14th November

I am pleased to let you know that our new Uniform Stall will be open from Monday 21st November. This stall will be available from 3pm on Monday under the shelter on the playground. The Uniform Stall is pay as you feel and any money raised will go into school funds to provide wider experiences for our children.

The stall relies on donations so if you kindly have any pre-loved uniform in good condition please send these into school – thank you for your continued support.

The Uniform Stall will be open each Friday, under the shelter on the playground from 3pm onwards. Some items are brand new – come and grab yourself a bargain!

Very much looking forward to Leigh Light Festival on Saturday when some of our Y6 and Y5 children are taking part, with their parents, in the Lantern Parade. Y6 have worked hard this week with a Wigle Dance coach to learn a dance to perform during the parade. Y5 have worked with Vicky Tyrrell to create lanterns to showcase their artwork during the parade.

Worship

In Worship this week, members of the Methodist Circuit visited school to begin the week's worship with a special Open the Book celebration. Members of the Ethos Committee also participated in this thought-provoking performance. The story looked at Exodus 20:1-17 and the miracle of Moses receiving the Ten Commandments from God on Mount Sinai. Children then explored this idea further in their classroom learning and shared what they had learned in Thursday's worship. They really enjoyed discovering how the Ten Commandments link to our school Christian Values.
